

A Summary of Ephesians 5:4

For something (a principle you know) – if you are traveling the upward road – that no idolater, no person with a confused soul, or a negative mind, will experience:

God's great plan of happiness