

Jesus in Every Book

The entire Bible is composed of 66 books – 39 in the Old Testament and 27 in the New Testament – written over a period of 1,500 years. These books unveil for us where we came from, where we are going, and how to live and please God. The Bible is the greatest of all love letters, and from it emerged the Judeo-Christian culture.

We must realize that when people turn from the inspired Word of God a slippery downhill slide will result. God's Word (all of it) from Genesis to Revelation – was penned by luminary personalities. Men like: Moses, the lawgiver; Isaiah, prophet and great evangelist; Jeremiah, the weeping prophet who shed tears over Jerusalem; David, king and psalmist; Daniel, the premier prophet who gave us the backbone of prophecy; Peter, intimate companion to the solid rock – Jesus; James, the half-brother of our Lord; John the beloved apostle and in Christ's inner circle; and Paul, the most brilliant theologian and faithful missionary and even a courageous martyr. No matter where you find any of these individuals mentioned, whatever book of the Bible – JESUS will be the major character and God's purpose and plan will be of utmost importance.
