

REDEMPTION – What it Means

Job 19:25 “As for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, and at the last He will take His stand on the earth;” vs. 26 “Even after my skin is flayed, yet without my flesh I shall see God,” vs. 27 “Whom I myself shall behold, and whom my eyes shall see and not another.”

What does Jesus mean when He says, “It is finished?” What does Job mean when he said: “I know that my Redeemer lives?”

- 1.) It means that the work of redemption was done.
- 2.) All things had been done which the law of God required.
- 3.) All things fulfilled which prophecy predicted.
- 4.) All things brought to pass which the types foretold.
- 5.) All things accomplished which the Father had given Jesus to do.
- 6.) All things performed that were necessary for redemption.

Everything was done; nothing was left. COMPLETE. The ransom was paid, the conflict was endured, the wages of sin were paid, and divine justice was satisfied. There was nothing more to do, so He died to rise again. Like when a painter signs his name. Masterpiece that cannot be added to! Mona Lisa. Not going to get my markers out – and ruin it. Marvel at – enjoy – don’t ruin the work of Christ.
